Review Notes

Arushee Agrawal
4/10/2018

Project Title: Skins Website

- Perhaps reconsider using uppercase for descriptions, since it can be a lot of information.
- Take away the hover text because it should be clear that the actual information is on a linked page, rather than the homepage.
- Consider using images from the generations as the buttons on the homepage – it does not necessarily have to be single characters/the main characters.
- The pictures could be in color because that would counter the simplicity of the design nicely.